

The ideal partner for your early-stage business

Why we are the ideal partner to start your business with.

You want to start a company based on an innovative and disruptive technology or a new business model and are looking for the right partner who will provide more than just the funding? High-Tech Gruenderfonds invests seed capital in your technology-based start-up and helps you build and grow your company successfully – from a strategic and a cooperative point of view. We assist you being an entrepreneur !

Our additional benefits for you: The high level of technology expertise provided by specialists in our investment manager team, a vast network of growth capital investors, members of the industry and other important partners, support with management issues and team building. Having financed almost 400 companies since 2005, you can rely on our expertise.

Funding – fast and sustainable

Based on this expertise, we invest in your seed-stage company and assist you in attracting further capital in follow-on rounds in order to provide your company with sufficient funds for successful growth . We have concluded transactions with almost all German and most of the leading European funds. The experience we have gained in the process and the contacts we have established to different capital providers and our fund investors are at your disposal.

High level of technological know-how

Our investment managers speak your language and apart from technical skills and technological expertise they also have business know-how. Our team is made up of specialists from many different fields, many of them have experience with starting a business themselves. Furthermore, we collaborate with scouts and experts to best help you with your strategy, structure and focus. We are your partner. You are the entrepreneur and that's what you will continue to be!

Benefit from our technical expertise, our technological understanding and our business know-how.

Network

We cultivate our network to universities, research institutions and business plan competitions, experts in the due diligence phase and specialist advisors. Moreover, as a start-up you benefit from the contact with our fund investors, successful entrepreneurs, business angels as well as investors when it comes to receiving fast and professional answers to questions vital for the company.

We offer you a useful network of competent contacts for your start-up.

Specialist advice

We help you realize your vision. Whether you are looking for capital, industrial cooperations or an amendment to your management, our team is there to assist you with the issues of fundraising, marketing and PR as well as HR.

Our team, scouts and experts assist you with questions regarding fundraising, marketing, PR, HR and others.

Another additional benefit for you is that we arrange for you to get together with entrepreneurs from our portfolio, e.g. on the annual Family Day. The event is one of the largest of its kind in Germany and brings together not only entrepreneurs but also our portfolio companies, investors and business angels. At the High-Tech Partnering Conference we systematically link our portfolio companies to industrial corporations.
